

Tax Residency Self-Certification Form for Common Reporting Standards.

INSTRUCTIONS for forms CRS-I, CRS-E and CRS-CP

Please read these instructions before completing the applicable form.

The Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters Act based on the OECD Common Reporting Standard (“CRS”) requires Heritage International Bank & Trust Limited/ Heritage Bank to collect and report certain information about an account holder’s tax residency. If the account holder’s tax residence is located outside Belize, we may be legally obliged to pass on the information in this form and other financial information with respect to your financial accounts to Income Tax Dept of Belize and they may exchange this information with tax authorities of another jurisdiction or jurisdictions pursuant to intergovernmental agreements to exchange financial account information.

This form will remain valid unless there is a change in circumstances relating to information, such as the account holder’s tax status or other mandatory field information that makes this form incorrect or incomplete. In that case you must notify us and provide an updated self-certification. This form is intended to request information consistent with local law requirements.

Please fill in Form CRS-I “Individual tax residency self-certification form” if you are an individual account holder, sole trader or sole proprietor. For joint or multiple account holders, use a separate form for each individual person.

Please fill in Form CRS-E “Entity tax residency self-certification form” where you need to self-certify on behalf of an entity account holder.

Please fill in Form CRS-CP “Controlling Person tax residency self-certification form,” if you are a controlling person of an entity.

If you are completing this form on behalf of someone else, please indicate what capacity you are signing in Part 3. For example, you may be the custodian or nominee of an account on behalf of the account holder, or you may be completing the form under a power of attorney.

A legal guardian should complete the form on behalf of an account holder who is a minor.

Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence, and jurisdictions have provided information on how to determine if you are resident in the jurisdiction on the following website: www.oecd.org. In general, you will find that tax residence is the country/jurisdiction in which you live. For more information on tax residence, please consult your tax adviser or the information at the OECD automatic exchange of information portal. You can also find summaries of defined terms such as an account holder, controlling persons and other terms, on that site. . If you are a U.S. citizen or tax resident under U.S. law, you should indicate that you are a U.S. tax resident on this form and you may also need to fill in an IRS W-9 form.

As a financial institution, we are not allowed to give tax advice.

Your tax adviser may be able to assist you in answering specific questions on this form. Your domestic tax authority can provide guidance regarding how to determine your tax status. You can also find out more, including a list of jurisdictions that have signed agreements to automatically exchange information, along with details about the information being requested, on the OECD automatic exchange of information www.oecd.org.
